

ConSequentially

Genesis 21 & Matthew 3:17

Abraham, like God the Father,
Found his son a great delight.
He expressed his satisfaction
With a festive feast one night.
God proclaimed his love for Jesus
As the Savior's work begun,
When He thundered out in pleasure,
"This is My beloved Son."

Genesis 22 & John 3:16

"Take your precious son," God urges,
"Up Moriah's steep incline;
Offer him upon an altar,
Like I've got to offer mine."
"Spare his life, but pause and ponder
What I feel deep down within,
When I contemplate the giving
Of My Son to bear your sin."

Genesis 24 & Luke 14:16-24

Abraham instructs his servant,
"Find my son a fitting wife.
Go and get her, bring her to him,
Let her brighten up his life."
So the Father sends the Spirit
Out to find His Son a bride,
And our loving Lord is longing
To embrace us at His side.

Genesis 25 & Romans 7

Twins conceived inside Rebecca
Struggled for control within,
God explained she should be certain
That the younger one would win.
As the bride of Christ we struggle,
For we have two natures too;
But the older sinful nature
Must be subject to the new.

Bud Morris
6/10/02

Copy and Distribute Freely.

Bud Morris, 800 E Eighth Street, Delavan, IL 61734-9316

More at www.poetique.cc

(309) 244-7471