

The Feast of God's Provision

Gathered at this feast, Lord Jesus,
In re-mem-br-ance of You,
It is our delight to ponder

Luke 22:14-20

What these emblems bring to view.
Earnestly Your presence with us
Bids us share this loaf and cup;
Symbols of the blood and body
You so freely offered up.

Righteous judgement fell on Egypt;
Grace abounded all the more;
Death's dark angel would not enter
Where the blood was on the door.

Exodus 12:1-13

Sheltered by its application
On the lintel and the jamb,
Your redeemed ones feasted safely
On the goodness of the Lamb.

Like the prodigal we'd wandered
From the Father's house of love.

Luke 15:11-32

He received us back as children;
Made us fit to dwell above.
Clothed us with His great salvation;
Gave us shoes to walk His way;
Makes us feast together with Him
On the Fattened Calf today.

Our great David was rejected;
Nailed in hatred to a Tree;
Died in agonies unequalled
For our sins at Calvary.

II Samuel 9:1-13

Though we were but loathsome sinners
Scavenging at Lodebar,
You would feast us at the table
of the Bright and Morning Star.

Now our Savior reigns in glory.
Heavens highest name belongs
To the One God raised in splendor,
Who deserves our praise and songs.

Genesis 14:17-20

Our Melchizedek has met us.
Now in victory we dine;
Feasting by Your own provision
On symbolic bread and wine.

We anticipate the supper
Of the marriage of the Lamb.
We are making ourselves ready
As the bride of the I AM.

Revelation 19:7-8

When the symbolism's over,
And we're safely at Your side,
We will feast our eyes upon You
And be fully satisfied.

Bud Morris

July 26-29, 1992