

The Glory of God

Ezekiel 1, Revelation 4

The angels applaud the glory of God
As lightning and thunders resound,
And auras of green fluoresce from the scene
Where Deity's essence is found.
The cherubs declare His holiness there
Where God is uniquely alone,
With standards so high He cannot deny
Himself though He sits on the throne.

Ephesians 3:10-11

But here on the earth they witnessed the birth
Of God's Son becoming a man,
And dying to save our souls from the grave
By heaven's ingenious plan.
Where holiness paid the debt sin had made
Revealing the strength of His love,
And through Adam's race they see that God's grace
Is part of His glory above.

Revelation 19:7-8

And then when the Lamb, the mighty I Am
Receives all His glory and laud,
They'll witness His bride displayed at His side,
Reflecting the glory of God.
She'll stand on His right, a radiant sight,
Redeemed and made holy within,
Her beautiful dress her own righteousness
Without any wrinkles of sin.

Bud Morris

11/30/01

Copy and Distribute Freely,

More at www.poetic.cc

Bud Morris, 800 E Eighth Street, Delavan, IL 61734-9316 (309) 244-7471