

Christmas Questions

“Unto you is born a Savior which is Christ the Lord and King.”

Could that infant in the manger be the one of whom they sing?

Could the King of all creation come of such a humble birth?

Could the Christ the people longed for be rejected on the earth?

Could the Lord of life be hanging on the cross of Calvary?

Could the Savior of the world give His life for you and me?

Should it happen any different than was prophesied of old? ¹

Wouldn't His mother be a virgin as the prophets had foretold? ²

Wouldn't He be a humble monarch riding on a donkey's back? ³

Wouldn't Messiah be rejected if they gave Him all that flak? ⁴

Wouldn't it be the crucifixion when they pierced His hands and feet? ⁵

Wouldn't the Savior have to die to make the prophecies complete? ⁶

How could God be more explicit about what He planned to do?

How can anybody doubt Him if they really think it through?

How can we forget to thank Him for His love from day to day?

How can we reject His mercy when He is the only way?

How can we escape the judgement if we pass the Savior by?

How can we neglect salvation when we know we're going to die?

1) Luke 24:25-27 2) Isaiah 7:14 Zechariah 9:9 4) Psalms 69:7-12 5) Psalms 22:16 6) Isaiah 53:12

Bud Morris

12/4/02

Copy and Distribute Freely.

Bud Morris, 800 E Eighth Street, Delavan, IL 61734-9316

More at www.poetique.cc

(309) 244-7471