

THE ROSE OF SHARON

I am the rose of Sharon, And the lily of the valleys.*
Song of Solomon 2:1

She stands out among the daughters like a flower in the thorns,¹
Like the lilies of the Scriptures that the grace of God adorns.²
She's endowed with such a beauty that the Son of God above³
Came and gave His life to shroud her in the banner of His love.⁴

She's a suitable companion for a King of such renown,⁵
For there are no spots or wrinkles in her linen wedding gown.⁶
'Cause the Lord Himself has cleansed her from the sinful things she's done.⁷
And she's clothed in all the glories that the saints of God have won,⁸

She's the lovely Rose of Sharon, she's the Church, the Savior's bride,⁹
And she has the place of honor at her dear Redeemer's side.¹⁰
She's a temple,¹¹ she's a city,¹² she's an army,¹³ she's a wife;¹⁴
She's the body of the Savior¹⁵ and the fullness of His life.¹⁶

*If the Song of Solomon symbolizes the relationship between Christ and the Church, the Rose of Sharon is His lover among the daughters and He is her beloved among the sons.
